

Officer Positions

President- The president's primary role is to act as a liaison between the class and the faculty and administration at the CVM. This includes coordinating with teachers and staff to potentially reschedule exam times or set up review sessions. Additionally, the president oversees the class executive board to ensure that everything runs smoothly for the class. Finally, the president serves as someone to fix whatever problems may arise throughout the year.

Vice President- The vice president plans events that your class decides to host. Enforcement and scheduling of the Zou Crew is also the responsibility of the vice president (when applicable).

Secretary- Keeping the calendar in the front of the room up to date, as well as an online calendar of assignments/homework, is the secretary's main job. Secretary should read through the schedule of each class prior to the start of each block and update the class calendar. The secretary should also record the minutes of each executive board meeting and then distribute the minutes to the class in order to keep everyone informed of class activities.

Treasurer- The treasurer maintains the bank account for the class, crafts a budget for the class' money, and oversees the collection of class dues, if you vote to have dues. The treasurer also serves as a member of the Fundraising Committee.

Historian- The historian records events and milestones over the course of the next four years. This includes documenting events with both pictures and video.

Fundraising- The fundraising chairs are responsible for raising any class funds needed beyond class dues (if you decide to have dues). They must work with other classes to organize fundraisers, manage their classmates during the fundraisers, and ensure that all money raised goes to the class bank account.

Honor Code Representatives (2 with 2 alternatives) - The Honor Code Representatives serve on the Honor Code Committee which deals with all reports of Honor Code violations in the school.

Graduate Professional Council Representatives (2) - The GPC Representatives attend all Graduate Professional Council meetings and therefore act as liaisons between the veterinary school and the rest of the graduate programs at MU. Additionally, the GPC Representatives attend SCAVMA meetings to report any pertinent information. They also keep the class informed of any GPC events.

SCAVMA Representatives (2) - The SCAVMA representatives attend SCAVMA meetings and act as a voice for your class. They will help SCAVMA plan events throughout the year and attend the AVMA Symposium in the spring.

Spirit Representatives are an extension of SAVMA and work to enforce the dress code set by the students. They also can organize fun themed days, such as a Spirit Day to wear school colors or something else... "On Wednesdays we wear pink."
