

EQUINE THERIOGENOLOGY

Advanced reproductive care for mares and stallions

From routine breeding management to complex reproductive challenges, the Mizzou Veterinary Health Center's theriogenology team provides comprehensive, science-driven care for horses at every stage of the reproductive cycle. Our services include:

- » Management for high-risk pregnancies
- » Estrous cycle management
- » Artificial insemination
- » Pregnancy diagnosis
- » Embryo transfer
- » Foal watch for high-risk pregnancies
- » Semen collection, freezing, storage and shipment
- » Diagnostic services for reproductive disease or fertility
- » Reproduction emergency services
- » Transvaginal aspiration of follicles
- » And more!